Section 212 Prepayments (Full or Partial) Involving Insurance Proceeds or Condemnation Awards

212.01 Partial Prepayments Generally Permitted

Partial prepayment of the Mortgage Loan is generally permitted for the application of the proceeds of an insurance claim or a condemnation award. Servicer must follow the requirements contained in the Loan Documents in connection with any such partial prepayment.

212.02 No Prepayment Premium Required

The Borrower is not required to pay a Prepayment Premium in connection with any prepayment that occurs as a result of the application to the Mortgage Loan of insurance proceeds or condemnation award proceeds, regardless of when during the Mortgage Loan term such prepayment occurs.

212.03 Reporting and Remitting Partial Prepayments

The proceeds representing the partial prepayment must be reported and remitted to Fannie Mae in the same manner and timeframe as is required for monthly remittances.
